any Opulence glaze - pints and gallons!

Opulence is an amazing glaze line for those firing to cone 5/6. Varied surfaces and color mottling mimic the results you'd get out of a reduction gas kiln. We've also been playing around with firing these glazes at cone 4/5 and they're fantastic, soft mattes - nice! So come in and change up your color palettes for the New Year!

Slip-ping

Winter weather brings the problem of clay freezing. Don't leave clay in your car or outside. Freezing causes water molecules and deflocculants to break their bond and separate from clay particles which means MUCH more work for you as the only way to fix this is to re-wedge the entire bag!
